

From the Sun to Pluto

APL is Looking for the Next Generation of Explorers University Students Wanted

From the Sun to Pluto, APL is engineering the future of space exploration – examining Earth’s near-space environment, our star, planetary bodies, and the outer solar system.

The NASA/APL Internship Program provides unique opportunities for university students to work on NASA missions or other space-related research opportunities at APL.

The Applied Physics Laboratory (APL) is a not-for-profit center for engineering, research, and development. Located north of Washington, DC, APL is a division of one of the world’s premier research universities, The Johns Hopkins University (JHU).

To learn more about APL, visit <http://www.jhuapl.edu/>.

Join us for 10 weeks this summer, and be a part of this extreme exploration!

Deadline: January 31, 2011
